

Contents

---

Abstract	5
I. Introduction	7
II. Policy Implications	9
1. Basic competencies for the workplace	10
2. A regional perspective	12
3. Catching up or falling behind in the field of human capital formation	13
4. Secondary and higher education policies and the labour market	15
5. Educational attainment and unemployment	20
6. Education premiums by levels of educational attainment: selected Latin American findings	23
7. Gender wage disparities by level of education: selected Latin American findings	27
III. Measurement practices	29
1. International work in measuring the labour market outcomes of education	30
2. Measurement without theory: the case of the labour market	31
3. The current household survey data situation and recommendations for change	33
Bibliography	37
Annexes	41
Serie Desarrollo Productivo: issues published	49

Tables

Table 1	Enrolment in secondary and higher education: 1985 to 1997 .....	14
Table 2	Human capital formation: educational performance 1998 .....	15
Table 3	Enrolment in technical and vocational programmes at the upper secondary level (1999): Latin American and selected OECD countries .....	16
Table 4	Unemployment rates by level of educational attainment 1998: population age 25 to 64 ...	21
Table 5	Distribution of tertiary education 1998: population age 25 to 64 .....	22
Table 6	Education premiums: earnings of persons age 15 to 64 by level of educational attainment and gender relative to upper secondary: 1993-1999 .....	24
Table 7	Education premiums: earnings of persons age 25 to 34 by level of educational attainment and gender relative to upper secondary 1993-1999 .....	26
Table 8	Mean annual earnings of women as a percentage of mean annual earnings of men 25 to 34 and 15 to 64 years of age, by level of educational attainment 1993-1999 .....	27

Figures

Figure 1	Traditional model of education .....	18
Figure 2	Deprofessionalization of higher education in Latin America .....	19
Figure 3	Solutions to the problem of deprofessionalization in Latin America .....	20