

CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword
Part I. Conditions of Women	1
Chapter 1. Changes in the Female Population	1
Chapter 2. Women's Education	2
A. Higher Education	2
B. Employment of New Graduates	3
Chapter 3. The Female Labor Force	4
A. Employment Trends	4
B. Features of Female Employment	5
C. Employment Management for Women	5
D. Diversification in Employment Patterns	6
E. Women's Working Conditions	6
Chapter 4. Women at Home	7
A. Changes in Family Structure	7
B. Divorce	8
Chapter 5. Old-aged Women	9
Chapter 6. Women's Lives and Attitudes	10
A. Women's Lives	10
B. Women's Attitudes	11
Chapter 7. Women's Public Activities	13
Part II. Policies for Women	14
Chapter 1. Improving Women's Legal Status	14
A. Legislative Amendments for Family Affairs	14
B. Legislative Proposals for Labor Relations	14

Chapter 2.	Promoting Women's Social Participation . . .	16
A.	Participation in Decision Making . . . . .	16
B.	Education and Training . . . . .	17
C.	Improvement of Employment Conditions . . . . .	18
D.	Improvement of Conditions in Rural Areas . . . . .	19
Chapter 3.	Protecting Mothers' Health . . . . .	20
A.	Maternity Health Care . . . . .	20
B.	Health Care for Working Mothers . . . . .	21
C.	Insurance Benefits for Mothers . . . . .	22
Chapter 4.	Guaranteeing Life in Old Age . . . . .	23
A.	Improvement of Pension Systems . . . . .	23
B.	Independence and Stability of Fatherless Families . . . . .	25
Chapter 5.	Promoting International Cooperation . . . . .	26
A.	Cooperation in U.N. Activities . . . . .	26
B.	Seminars on Women's Affairs Administration . . . . .	27
Chapter 6.	Promoting the Action Plan . . . . .	28