

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	3
Introduction - Findings and Recommendations of the International Consultation: Operational Requirements for Advancing Women in Ecosystem Management	7
Prospectus, Programme and Working Group Documents	17
Part I - Plenary/Keynote Speeches	41
• Ismail Serageldin - Vice President, Environmentally Sustainable Development, The World Bank	43
• Sharon Capeling-Alakija, Fund Director, UNIFEM	49
• Elizabeth Dowdeswell, Under-Secretary General of the UN, Executive Director, UNEP	53
Part II - Plenary Presentations on Ecosystems	57
• Terms of Reference for the Plenary Presentations	59
• Coastal and Wetland Areas by Alicia Barcena	63
• Rivers, Ground Water and Lakes by Letitia Obeng	75
• Mountain Ecosystems by Elizabeth Byers & Meeta Sainju	89
• Temperate and Tropical Forests by Jill Blockhus & Najma Siddiqi	129
• Arid and Semi-Arid Lands by Rosalind David & Esther Wangari	147
Part III -Assessing Present Intra-Agency Cooperation on Women and Ecosystem Management, and Identifying Opportunities for Integrating Women in Ecosystem Management: Organizational Profiles	181
Part IV - List of Participants	271
Part V - Appendices	289
1. Organization of American States: Women and the Environment - Suggested Text for Transmittal to the Permanent Council, Executive Committee, 16-18 February, 1993	291
2. United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED) AGENDA 21, Chapter 24	297
3. 1995 Fourth World Conference on Women: Resolution on Environment	303
4. List of Additional Documents Distributed at the Consultation	307