
Contents

Foreword	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
1. Introduction	1
2. Background	3
2.1 Abortion laws and the empowerment of women	3
2.2 The psychological consequences of abortion	4
3. The situation in the Western Pacific Region	7
3.1 Incidence and the legal status of abortion	7
3.2 Accessing abortion	17
3.3 Abortion and family planning	19
3.4 Abortion and teenage pregnancies	20
3.5 Illegal abortions and costs to life and health	21
4. Key issues and recommendations	23
Issue No. 1 - Illegal abortions are detrimental to women's health and lives	23
Issue No. 2 - Abortion is not recognized as part of a woman's strategy to control fertility	24
Issue No. 3 - Abortions among adolescents are increasing	25
Issue No. 4 - The causes of unwanted pregnancies	25
Issue No. 5 - Health care delivery systems are not structured appropriately to respond to women with abortion complications	26

Issue No. 6 - There is a serious lack of research and data on abortion issues in the Region	27
---	----

Bibliography	29
--------------	----

List of Tables

Table 1	Legal abortions in Singapore	8
Table 2	Reported number of abortions by reason (Japan, 1992)	9
Table 3	Reported number of induced abortions and abortion rate by woman's age by year (Japan)	10
Table 4	Abortions in the Republic of Korea, 1985-1989	11
Table 5	Trends in induced abortion rates for , married women, Republic of Korea, 1963-1987	12
Table 6	Profile of women undergoing abortion in Singapore (percentage of total abortions)	20