

Contents

5	Preface
7	Introduction: Gender Budget Analysis and Accountability to Women
13	Concepts, Tools and Analysis
15	Gender Responsive Budget Initiatives: Key Dimensions and Practical Examples Diane Elson
30	Gender Responsive Budget Initiatives: Tools and Methodology Guy Hewitt
38	Gender and Public Spending: Insights from Benefit Incidence Lionel Demery
56	Shortcuts to Public Service Provision? User Fees and Narrow Targeting Jan Vandemoortele
62	Tools for Budget Impact Analysis: Taxes and Benefits Susan Himmelweit
70	Can Civil Society Add Value to Budget Decision-Making? Warren Krafchik
86	Moving Forward: Multiple Strategies and Guiding Goals Rhonda Sharp
99	Country-Level Experiences
101	Municipal Budgets and Democratic Governance in the Andean Region Virginia Vargas-Valente
113	Lessons from Practice: The Role of Parliament in South Africa's Women's Budget Pregs Govender
119	Mainstreaming Gender into Policy, Planning and Budgeting in Tanzania Mary Rusimbi
126	Parliamentary Governance and Gender Budgeting: The Uganda Experience Winnie Byanyima
136	The Yellow Budget Paper and Gender Equality in France Françoise Philippe-Raynaud
140	Institutionalizing a Gender and Development Initiative in the Philippines Celia Reyes
147	Building Budgets from Below: Women Design Fiscal Policy in Karnataka, India Devaki Jain
163	Advocacy and Mobilization
165	Noeleen Heyzer, Executive Director, UNIFEM
167	Eddy Boutmans, State Secretary of Development Cooperation, Belgium
171	Tony Hutton, Director, Public Management Directorate, OECD
173	Sigurdur Helgason, Deputy Secretary General, Nordic Council of Ministers
177	Laurette Onkelinx, Deputy Prime Minister, Belgium
178	Winston Cox, Deputy Secretary General, Commonwealth Secretariat
182	Notes on Contributors
185	Conference Communiqué, Brussels, October 2001
188	Glossary
191	List of Participants