

Contents

Author's Note 5

Introduction 7

Basic Information about the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia 13

Historical Background 15

Discrimination against Women in Prewar Yugoslavia (1918—1941) 15

The Workers' Movement and the Struggle for Women's Equality 19

The National Liberation War and Socialist Revolution 24

Revolutionary Changes and Achievements 31

Fundamental Features of the Development 33

The Socioeconomic Order of Yugoslavia 36

Self-Management and Social Ownership 36

The Basic Organization of Associated Labour 39

Self-Management Interest Unions 41

The Local Community 43

Development Planning 45

From the Representative to the Delegate Political System 47

The Role of Leading Sociopolitical Forces 52

A Progress Report 56

Theoretical Basis of Women's Emancipation 61

Theory Underlying Social Action 61

The Creative Application of Marxism 65

Political Action 72

The Role of Women's Organizations 76

Changing Women's Status by Legislation 85

Employment, Education, Health 89

Industrialization and Urbanization 89

Some Features of Women's Employment 91

Women as Migrant Workers 97

Employed Women's Welfare 98

Women in Rural Development 104

Education 112

Social Welfare Policy and Health Care 119

Marriage, Family, Household, Child Welfare 127

Transformation of the Family 127

Child Welfare 134

Demographic Trends 141

Family Planning 142

Constitutional Right to a Free Decision on Childbearing 146

International Cooperation 147

Appendix 157

Review of Legislation Relevant to Women's Legal Status in the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia 157

Provisions of the 1974 SFRY Constitution 167

List of Legislation Regulating Women's Legal Status in Yugoslavia 173

Resolution on Promoting the Status and Role of Women 177

Basic Statistical Information about Women in the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia 191

Explanations of Some Expressions and Notions Used in the Book 203